

QUANEX BUILDING PRODUCTS CORPORATION
BOARD OF DIRECTORS
AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

PURPOSE

1. The Board of Directors (the "Board") of Quanex Building Products Corporation (the "Company") shall establish an Audit Committee (the "Committee").
2. The primary purpose of the Committee is to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibility to:
 - (a) monitor the integrity of the Company's financial reporting process, including review of the financial reports and other financial information provided by the Company to the public and governmental and regulatory bodies;
 - (b) review the Company's system of internal financial and disclosure controls, and review the performance of the Company's internal audit function;
 - (c) review the annual independent audit of the Company's financial statements, and monitor the public accountant's qualifications and independence;
 - (d) review compliance with applicable laws and regulations which may represent material financial exposure to the Company;
 - (e) ensure ongoing effective risk management and oversight, including with regard to cyber-risk and information security risk; and
 - (f) otherwise discharge its oversight responsibilities to stockholders, potential stockholders and the investment community relating to the Company's accounting and financial reporting process and the audits of the Company's financial statements.
3. In discharging its role, the Committee is empowered to investigate any matters brought to its attention, with full access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company and the power to retain outside counsel and other outside advisors.
4. The Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter on an annual basis, and shall prepare the report required by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission to be included in the Company's annual proxy statement.

5. The Committee shall meet regularly at least four times per year, or more frequently if circumstances so dictate.

MEMBERSHIP

6. The membership of the Committee shall meet the eligibility, independence, experience, and financial literacy and financial expertise requirements of applicable laws, the New York Stock Exchange and Section 10A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, and the rules promulgated thereunder, and shall meet the definitions of "non-employee director" under Rule 16b-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. No Committee member shall have participated in the preparation of the Company's or any of its subsidiaries' financial statements during the past three years.
7. The Committee shall be composed of no fewer than three members, including a chairperson, each of whom shall be elected by a vote of a majority of the Board based on recommendations made by the Nominating & Corporate Governance Committee. The members shall serve until their successors are appointed. A member of the Committee may be removed at any time with or without cause by action of the Board. At least one member of the Committee shall, at all times, be an "audit committee financial expert" within the definition adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission.
8. Due to the demanding nature of service on the Committee, Committee members may not serve on the audit committees of the boards of directors of more than two other public companies at the same time as they are serving on this Committee, unless the Board determines that such service would not impair the ability of such member to effectively serve on the Committee.

COMMITTEE AUTHORITY & RESPONSIBILITY

9. The Committee shall have the sole authority to appoint or replace the public accountants, and shall approve all audit engagement fees and terms and all non-audit engagements with the public accountants. The Committee shall consult with management but shall not delegate these responsibilities, except that pre-approvals of non-audit services may be delegated to a single member of the Committee. In its capacity as a committee of the Board, the Committee shall be directly responsible for the oversight of the work of the public accounting firm for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or related work, and the public accounting firm shall report directly to the Committee.

10. The Committee shall review and concur in the appointment, replacement, reassignment, or dismissal of the Internal Audit leader.
11. The Committee shall have the authority, to the extent it deems necessary or appropriate, to retain special legal, accounting or other consultants to advise the Committee and carry out its duties, and to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within its scope of responsibilities.
12. The Company shall pay for the following, as directed by the Committee: (a) compensation to the public accountants for the purpose of preparing or issuing an audit report or performing other audit, review or attest services for the Company; (b) compensation to any advisers or consultants employed by the Committee in accordance with paragraph 11 hereof; and (c) ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its duties.
13. The Committee shall meet periodically with management, the internal auditors and the registered public accountants in separate executive sessions in furtherance of its purposes.
14. The Committee shall make regular reports to the Board, and annually review the Committee's own performance.
15. In performing its functions, the Committee shall undertake those tasks and responsibilities that, in its judgment, would most effectively contribute and implement the purposes of the Committee. The following functions are common recurring activities of the Committee in carrying out its oversight and risk management responsibility:
 - (a) Review and discuss with management and the public accountants the Company's annual audited financial statements, including disclosures made in "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations," and the matters required to be discussed pursuant to Public Company Accounting Oversight Board Auditing Standard 1301 or any successor to that Standard, and recommend to the Board whether the audited financial statements should be included in the Company's Form 10-K.
 - (b) Review and discuss with management and the public accountants the Company's quarterly financial statements, including disclosures made under “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” or similar disclosures, and the matters required to be discussed pursuant to Public Company Accounting Oversight Board Auditing Standard 1301 or any successor to that Standard, prior to the filing of its Form 10-Q, including the results of the public accountants’ review of the quarterly financial statements to the extent applicable.

- (c) Review and discuss with management and the public accountants, as applicable, (1) major issues regarding accounting principles and financial statement presentations; (2) analyses prepared by management or the public accountants setting forth significant financial reporting issues and judgments made in connection with the preparation of the financial statements, including analyses of the effects of alternative GAAP methods on the financial statements; (3) any management letter provided by the public accountants and the Company’s response to that letter; (4) any problems, difficulties or differences encountered in the course of the audit work, including any disagreements with management or restrictions on the scope of the public accountants’ activities or on access to requested information and management’s response thereto; (5) the effect of regulatory and accounting initiatives, as well as off-balance sheet structures, on the financial statements of the Company; (6) earnings press releases as well as financial information and earnings guidance provided to analysts and rating agencies; and (7) “Critical Accounting Matters” identified by the public accountants on an annual basis.
- (d) Review and discuss with management and Internal Audit (1) significant findings on internal audits during the year and management responses thereto; (2) any difficulties the Internal Audit team encountered in the course of its audits, including any restrictions on the scope of its work or access to required information; (3) any changes required in the scope of their internal audit; (4) the Internal Audit budget and staffing; and (5) the Internal Audit charter.
- (e) Discuss with management on an annual basis the Company’s major financial risk exposure and the steps management has taken to monitor and control such exposures, including the Company’s risk assessment, derivatives policy and cash investment policy.
- (f) Obtain and review a report from the public accountants at least annually regarding (1) the registered public accountants’ internal quality-control procedures; (2) any material issues raised by the most recent quality-control review, or peer review, of the firm, or by any inquiry or investigation by governmental or professional authorities, within the preceding five years, respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm; (3) any steps taken to deal with any such issues; (4) all relationships between the public accountants and the Company, including the amount and existence of fees, if any, for non-audit services and the tenure of the relationship between the public accountants and the Company.

- (g) Evaluate the qualifications, performance and independence of the public accountants, including a review and evaluation of the lead partner of the registered public accountant.
- (h) Ensure that the lead audit partner of the public accountants and the audit partner responsible for reviewing the audit are rotated at least every five years as required by the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.
- (i) Discuss with the public accountants any communications between the audit team and the audit firm's national office respecting auditing or accounting issues presented by the engagement.
- (j) Discuss with the public accountants the internal audit department's audit plan.
- (k) Review procedures for the confidential, anonymous submission, retention, and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters. Review any submissions alleging questionable accounting or auditing matters, including current status, investigation steps, and resolution.
- (l) Review disclosures made by the Company's principal executive officer or officers and principal financial officer or officers regarding compliance with their certification obligations as required under the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the rules promulgated thereunder, including the Company's disclosure controls and procedures and internal controls for financial reporting and evaluations thereof.
- (m) Review any reports of the registered public accountants mandated by Section 10A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and obtain from the public accountants any information with respect to illegal acts in accordance with Section 10A.

- (n) When necessary, discuss with the Company's legal counsel any significant legal, compliance or regulatory matters that may have a material effect on the Company's financial statements or business.
- (o) Set clear hiring policies for employees or former employees of the public accountants.
- (p) Oversee that management has established and maintained processes to ensure adequate enterprise risk management.
- (q) Review with management at least annually (i) the Company's exposure to cybersecurity risk and efforts with regard to identifying and mitigating cybersecurity and information security risks; (ii) specific cybersecurity and information security risks and threat vectors applicable to the Company and management's approach to mitigating or eliminating such risks; and (iii) the Company's data privacy, cybersecurity, and information security policies, any cybersecurity or information security incidents, and related disclosures.
- (r) In the event of any material cybersecurity incident, review materiality test results and inform the Board on any reporting or other obligations related to such incident.
- (s) Review with management at least annually the Company's use of artificial intelligence, including oversight of the Company's governance mechanisms to monitor, identify, and mitigate potential risks associated with the deployment and use of artificial intelligence and/or machine learning.

DELEGATION

- 16. Except as otherwise provided in this Charter, the Committee shall have the authority to designate, and delegate duties to, such standing and ad-hoc sub-committees as it deems necessary or desirable.
- 17. While the Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the Committee to prepare financial statements, plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company's financial statements and disclosures are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and applicable rules and regulations. These are the responsibilities of management and the registered public accountants.
- 18. The Committee shall perform any other activities required by applicable law, rules or regulations, including the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and any exchange or market on which the Company's capital stock is traded, and perform other activities that are consistent with this Charter, the Company's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, and governing laws, as the Committee or the Board deems necessary or appropriate. While acting within the scope of the powers and responsibilities delegated to it, the Committee shall have and may exercise all the powers and authority of the Board. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Committee shall have the power to determine which matters are within the scope of the powers and responsibilities delegated to it.

19. Nothing contained in this Charter is intended to expand applicable standards of liability under statutory or regulatory requirements for the directors of the Company or members of the Committee. The purposes and responsibilities outlined in this Charter are meant to serve as guidelines rather than as inflexible rules and the Committee may adopt such additional procedures and standards as it deems necessary or advisable from time to time to fulfill its responsibilities or comply with applicable laws, rules or regulations. In addition, the Committee may amend any procedures or standards set forth in this Charter as it deems necessary from time to time to comply with applicable laws, rules or regulations. This Charter, and any amendments thereto, shall be displayed on the Company's web site and a printed copy of such shall be made available to any shareholder of the Company who requests it.

Last reviewed on May 28, 2026