"I would like to thank Jeff for the outstanding job he has done for Quanex over the last 20 years and wish him the best in his retirement. I appreciate him helping us find another quality IRO to take over and for his assistance during the transition," said Brent Korb, Quanex chief financial officer. "Our goal is to continue to effectively communicate our business plan so that the financial community can clearly understand our strategy and the financial and operational direction of the company. We welcome Marty to the Quanex team and are sure he will continue the high standards set by Jeff."

Mr. Ketelaar was previously Vice President of Investor Relations and Assistant Treasurer for The ServiceMaster Company, a residential and commercial service network. Prior to that, he was with AmerUs Group and Coopers and Lybrand. He received his BBA from the University of Iowa and his MBA from Drake University and is a Certified Public Accountant.
